Excerpt: . Duke of Albemarle was still in fight, and had ben all Saturday, and that Capt. Harman s ship (the Henrie) was like to be burnt. Then a letter from Mr. Bertie that Pr. Rupert was come up with his squadron (according to my former advice of his being loose and in the way), and put new courage into our fleete, now in a manner yielding ground, so that now we were chasing the chasers; that the Duke of Albemarle was slightly wounded, and ye rest still in greate danger. So having ben much wearied with my journey, I slipp d home, the gunns still roaring very fiercely. 5th. I went this morning to London, where came severall particulars of the fight. 6th. Came Sr Dan. Harvey from the General, and related the dreadfull encounter, on which his Maty commanded me to dispatch an...
