And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I, saying, Blesfing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever. ME N, have generally agreed, to dignify their presumptuous and arrogant disquisitions on the works and ways of God, with the name of wisdom j though the principles upon which they proceed, and the conclusions which they draw from them, are, for the most part, evident proofs of their depravity and folly; Instead of admiring the effetts effects of his wisdom and power in the creation, they have rashly endeavoured to investigate the manner of its production-. A variety of hypotheses have been...
