Weese, University of New Mexico. There being no further nominations, these nominees were unanimously elected. It was recommended that a Committee on Membership be appointed by the incoming President to consider the matter of life membership, foreign membership, etc., and to report at the next meeting. The following resolution, proposed by Dr. F. C. Gates, was adopted: Whereas, the University of Chicago has so graciously and fully extended to us its facilities, December 28-31, 1920, for the meeting of the Ecological Society of America, and, Whereas, Prof. Cowles and Dr. Fuller have been untiring in their efforts to make the Ecological Society perfectly at home during its stay in Chicago; thus making our meeting most happy and profitable, Be it Resolved, that the Ecological Society of America extend its most appreciative and hearty thanks to the University of Chicago and to Prof. Cowles and Dr. Fuller for their efforts in our behalf. A resolution to the effect that it is to the interest of the Society that the practice of holding Field Meetings of the Society should be revived, was adopted.
