Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Free Dental Clinics in North Carolina: Traveling Dental Service for Rural School Children During the Summer of 1918 We have endeavored to set forth in this pamphlet a detailed record of the first effort ever made in North Carolina, or so far as we know anywhere in the United States, to provide at public expense traveling dental service free of cost to rural school children. The work was inaugurated by the Bureau of Medical Inspection of Schools, largely in the nature of an experiment, as an integral part of the follow-up work of the inspection. We have made many mistakes, some inexcusable, but most of them unavoidable. A beginning has been made, however, in a great field of service for the children of the State; and in the years to come that beginning will be looked upon as an event of historic importance, because it is something that has come to stay. There have been many difficulties in the way of success; some have been overcome, some have not, but will be. There have been...
