Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Trails to Testimony: Bringing Young Men to Christ Through Scouting - President Gordon B. Hinckley said, There is no more significant work in this world than the preparation of boys to become men . . . who are qualified to live productive and meaningful lives. And President Thomas S. Monson underscores this thought when he says that It s easier to build boys than to mend them. Bradley D. Harris, professor of recreational management and youth leadership at Brigham Young University, and past member of the LDS Young Mens General Board, challenges parents and youth leaders alike to rediscover the spiritual dimensions of Scouting-to focus on the close relationship that should exist between Scouting and the Aaronic Priesthood. The author s 22-year professional career with the Boy Scouts of America, combined with extensive experience within the Church in various priesthood leadership capacities, gives him invaluable insights into the responsibilities that parents and leaders have in bringing young men to Christ. The family is the first institution charged with bringing young men to Christ. . . . Working in...
