A Her affliction was misunderstood, casting her into the shadows where she was forced to live until brutal events practiced by a rogue man of the cloth set her on a trail that did not exist, and eventually to a conditional freedom.A At her side rode the handsome Comanche warrior whose life she had saved, her young son and the elusive wolf that became a part of her life. Across the burning wasteland they loved as they traveled in search of the warrior s tribe.A Accepted with open arms, again she saved the life of the God-man with pieces of the sky for eyes. A With his life hanging in the balance her spirit wraps around him to give him strength to live beyond the torture that befell him. Safely within the Comanche arms, Flower finally became , and traveled beside her husband on the war trail as well as into captivity.A Becoming a trusted confidant of...
