Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Tva and the Grass Roots: A Study in the Sociology of Formal Organization This study was made possible by a field fellowship granted Social Science Research Council; and by the cooperation of the Tennessee Valley Authority, which opened its doors to scientific inquiry with no strings attached. To both of these organizations I am indebted for the opportunity they created. The materials of this inquiry were gathered during 1942-1943. The analysis was not committed to paper until three years later - a wholly incidental consequence of the war years. Subsequent developments in the TVA program and organization have not been taken into account. But since the primary interest of the study is in theoretical considerations, the delay is not, perhaps, as consequential as it might otherwise be. On the other hand, the situation within TVA as it was in 1943 represented the close of a decade of its operation, a point to be borne in mind by those interested in TVA's history for its own sake. The files and the personnel...
