Andersen. 1 Paperback(s), 2013. soft. Book Condition: New. Life is pleasant and peaceful at the pond, until some familiar sounds ("Pop! Poop!") and an awful smell pervade the landscape, in this book for prereaders by the author of Boa's Bad Birthday. The pike suspects the carp, who in turn accuses the tadpole, until the circle of blame includes the fox, pig, and horse. The stench remains, though, and eventually they will uncover the culprit. With his usual gift for rendering funny animals, the illustrator of Drat That Cat depicts a fish with a clothespin on its nose, newts in fancy suits, and some owls feasting on chicken and wine. 28.
