RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 46 pages. Original publisher: Washington, D. C. : U. S. General Accounting Office, 2004 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)57376747 Subject: Congregate housing -- United States. Excerpt: . . . voluntarily enter virtually all of the descriptive information on price range, 19 housing configurations, populations served, and services offered. A provider representative indicated that entering the Web site data initially takes 10 to 15 minutes. Providers can update their information at any time. By February 2004, approximately 40 percent of assisted living facilities had filled in their data fields. DOEA also tries to spot-check at least some key data elements entered into the system, even though the Web site itself prominently displays a disclaimer that provider-entered data have not been verified for accuracy. No formal evaluations of the Web site have yet been undertaken, but informal feedback has been uniformly positive according to both provider and consumer representatives, as well as the state official responsible for its operation. Consumers, and those acting on their behalf, are finding that the Web site has several distinct advantages over previously available information sources. Most importantly, it provides a way to efficiently narrow their search. They...
