RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 60 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)45814144 Subject: Lawyers -- Fees -- United States. Excerpt: . . . by the procedures for processing attorney fees. However, any individual or organization not scheduled for an oral appearance may submit a written statement for consideration by the Committee and for inclusion in the printed record of the hearing. BACKGROUND: Individuals seeking Social Security benefits may choose to have attorneys or other individuals represent them in their claims. The Commissioner of Social Security through regulation establishes a limit on the amount of the representation fee that may be charged and approves each fee charged by any representative. In favorable decisions, the Commissioner withholds the attorneys fee from the claimants past-due benefits and payment is made directly to the attorney. Prior to 2000, the costs associated with the processing, withholding, and approving direct payment of attorney fees were absorbed in the administrative budget for the SSA. The Ticket to Work and Work Incentives Improvement Act of 1999 (P. L. 106-170) requires the Commissioner to cover the costs of paying attorney fees directly to attorneys out of the fees collected. Attorneys are prohibited from recouping this cost from their clients. Effective February 1, 2000, the assessment for calendar year 2000 is 6. 3 percent of the approved attorneys fee. For future years, the assessment will be set at a rate to achieve full recovery of the costs of determining, processing, withholding, and distributing payment of fees to attorneys, but it may not exceed 6. 3 percent. The legislation also eliminated a 15-day delay before attorney fees could be paid and directed a study by the GAO of a number of issues related to representation and payment of attorney fees with a report due by December...
